SERVIA'S YOUNG KING

Takes Possession of His Throne and Palace.

MOST BRILLIANT COUP D'ETAT

The Regents and Ministers Ousted at a Banquet--Creates a Sensation.

BELGRADE, April 14.—A bloodless coup d'etat was effected here last night, and King Alexander I, the youthful ruler of Servia, who heretofore governed the country through regents, today rules in his own name. A grand banquet was given at the palace last night. Plans were secretly laid by means of which the regents and the ministry would be ousted without an opportunity of opposing. The unsuspecting regents and ministers attended the banquet, and while enjoying themselves at the palace an attachment of soldiers and bodies of police took possession of the ministers' houses and occupied the government buildings. At midnight, while the festivities were still in progress, King Alexander proclaimed that he had attained his majority, and had assumed with the akuphetina the government of the country. As a matter of fact the king had not attained his majority. When the deposed regents and ministers heard the proclamation they were dumbfounded. The king and his advisers acted with great promptitude, and the soldiers, who were in waiting, at once placed the regents and ministers under arrest. The Servian army is loyal to the king. Had it not been the coup d'etat would not have been possible. After issuing the proclamation, and long before day-break, the king proceeded to the barracks, where the troops were under arms, and was received with joyous acclamations and many expressions of loyalty. The proclamation, which he issued everywhere in the country today, bears the king's signature. In it Alexander declares the constitution has been lately in sore jeopardy, the rights of citizens imperiled and the constitutional position of parliament so abased that the king must end the unhappy condition of affairs. He therefore declares he has come to age, and has assumed the kingly power. Henceforth, the proclamation adds, the Servian constitution acquires its full significance. The regents have been deposed, the cabinet dismissed and a new ministry appointed. Dokitch is the new prime minister.

THE HAWAIIANS.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—It is said in hauling down the United States' flag at Honolulu, Bloat followed the instructions given him before leaving here to the letter; that the reason for keeping the fact that he was empowered to do so a secret, was to prevent possible disorder in the islands and keep any other foreign country from stepping in unexpectedly.

Attention is called to these passages in the instructions issued under the previous administration by Secretary Foster to Minister Stevens, under date of February 11th, 1893: So far as your action amounts to in according, at the request of the de facto sovereign government of the Hawaiian islands, the co-operation of the moral and material forces of the United States for the protection of life and property from apprehended disorders, your action is commended; but so far as it may appear to overstep that limit by setting the authority and power of the United States above that of the government of the Hawaiian islands in the capacity of protection, or to impair in any way the independent sovereignty of the Hawaiian government by substituting the flag and power of the United States as a symbol and manifestation of paramount authority, it is disavowed.

AFTER ELEVEN YEARS.

In 1882 H. M. Mead, an old banker in Wanpaca, Wis., was shot and killed in his banking office late at night by a robber unknown until recently. For eleven years Pinkerton detectives have worked upon the case, and discovered the perpetrator by a lawyer trying to dispose of some bonds stolen at the time. The lawyer informed upon the murderer, when cornered, evidently to save himself. This led to the arrest and indictment of Edward Bronson a hotel-keeper, Samuel Stout a saloon-keeper, and Ted Prior a policeman, all of Waupaca, as accessories before the fact, and Bill Hanskome as an accessory after the fact. Bronson had been recently working for a lumbering company at Tacoma, who, when he heard of the indictment, was Disappeared With His Wife's Money.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—The police are looking for Peter B. Goldstone, who disappeared rather strangely last night with $2,000 of his wife's money. According to the story told by his wife, she was married to her husband March 21. Yesterday Goldstone induced her to sign a check for $2,000 which he cashed. Last night he took his wife to the theater, and during one of the acts left her, promising to return in a few minutes. This is the last she saw of him. It was afterwards learned that he left the city with a woman named Waters. He had been courting the latter previous to meeting the young woman whom he married, on ascertaining that she possessed some money.

BEHRING SEA ARGUMENT.

PARIS, April 14.—Carter, of counsel for the United States, continued his address today before the Behring sea court of arbitration. He further discussed the law governing the tribunal, and likened the unrestricted destruction of seals to pelagic piracy. He discussed the original rights of Russia in Behring sea, which he claimed were founded on the discovery of the waters by Russian navigators, whose achievements Carter related to the court with the assistance of a large map exhibited on the wall, and which embraced a description of the Behring sea and adjoining regions.

LITTLE TO CHEER THEM.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The Oregonian office-seekers here are in the dumps, and there is little to cheer them. They have been here for some time, and yet very few plums have fallen. Senator Mitchell has been receiving vast quantities of applications from all parts of the state, and has been filing them. The outside office-seekers, however, will not have the benefit of a republican senator in this matter very long, for Senator Mitchell goes to Oregon in a few days. The appointment of a minister to Turkey yesterday was a sore disappointment to Col. Robert A. Miller, who was here and an applicant for the place. Ex-Postmaster Roby was also an applicant, but it is understood that his friends are now booming him for postmaster of Portland. The fight for the appraisership grows very warm. Mrs. C. W. Johnston is here, and is advocating the claims of her husband for the place. There are numerous other candidates, some with good backing and others with only their own applications and a few indorsements. But the cool treatment the Oregon democrats have received at the White House has not been encouraging to them.

WILL APPEAL TO ENGLAND OR GERMANY.

BOSTON, April 14.—Hawaiian Minister Mott Smith, who is in Boston, says the provisional government of Hawaii will now appeal to England or Germany for support, and each of these nations stand ready to respond to any overtures.

Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well.
