The News of the County in Detail

MOLALLA.

Charley Dauberty made a visit to Oregon City on Saturday.

Mr. Shepherd, who is largely interested in the stock business in Eastern Oregon, is here visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Johnson.

Mrs. Jarisch has returned to her home in Oswego.

Dr. Weaver, of Hubbard, made a visit to John Johnson last week. He makes the same report on the case as Dr. Leavitt.

Miss Mable Miller has had to quit school on account of poor health.

Mrs. Gibson is to have an auction sale on her ranch May 6. She intends to return to Portland.

Messrs. Hatton and Lewis made two trips to Canby with teams last week.

Cary Herman is living in his new house. He is now contemplating building a new barn.

Mrs. L. Dart has just got a new loom, it is one of the latest improved flying shuttle affairs. Now everybody knows that Emily is a rustler, so he away with your gossip. We mean carpet.

District No. 91 and Needy are both to be congratulated on their selection of teachers for the spring term. It will be the first term for Miss Thompson, but we predict success for her.

Clyde Marquam will teach the spring term in the Quinn district. Clyde taught the winter term there and gave excellent satisfaction.

Mr. Duffy, the mail carrier, says: "I charge 50 cents a passenger from Molalla to Oregon City and throw my talk in gratis," there he proving the old saying, "talk is cheap."

April 24.

CLACKAMAS.

Walter Wilson has gone to the upper Clackamas hatchery. He expects to be away five months.

Frank Haberlach and Herman Oelschlaeger have gone to Aberdeen, Wash., where they expect to get work in a logging camp.

C. A. Wade has been quite sick for some time with some complication of the stomach, and as he is getting along in years this is quite a serious matter.

The Vigorit Powder Company, with Kelly McFarland as manager, is kept busy this spring, there being teams at the magazine for powder nearly every day. McFarland is the O. K. powder man in this state.

Willie Capps is the proud possessor of a new wheel and rides very well, but can't turn around without dismounting, for when he leaves home he rides west a couple of miles, gets off, turns around, rests a few hours and then gets on and returns home again.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Wilson has been quite ill with an attack of bronchitis.

Herbert Clark was out from Portland visiting his parents last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Soleigh is building an addition to his residence.

There seems to be a great deal of complaint about the road from the railroad crossing in Clackamas on the Damascus and Portland road to where it intersects the gravel road near the cemetery. This is the oldest road in the state and travelled more than any road in this county and still there has never been any work done on it except a short strip of gravel seven rods long midway between these points and the grading of the hill in front of Mather's store, which was a political scheme and left the road in worse condition than before.

April 22 FINS.

CEDAR VALE.

Mr. Dodge's family have moved into their new house.

Mrs. Sharp has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Priester.

Arthur Forbes returned to Willamette University last Saturday.

Mrs. Dan Greenes and the twins are visiting with Mrs. Graves' parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Dodge.

Miss Enoy was a Cedar Vale visitor Wednesday.

George Priester is hauling whingles for Ephraim Dodge.

Charles and James Forbes are cutting cord wood for John Davis.

Ephraim Dodge has purchased a new horse.

News is scarce in the Vale this week.

April 20

LOGAN.

The Lower Logan school will give a public entertainment and basket ball at Harding's Grange hall, on Saturday evening, May 6. The exercises will consist of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, dialogues and tableaux.

The object of this entertainment is to raise funds, with which to purchase a bell for the Lower Logan school.

Everybody is cordially invited to come, and the ladies are especially invited to bring baskets. The exercises will begin at 8 p. m. sharp.

April 24.

AURORA.

H. J. Miller was in Portland Friday and Saturday of last week.

W. S. Hurst, the potato buyer, was in Oregon City Friday attending circuit court.

A. F. Will visited Salem Thursday and Friday of last week.

H. H. Hurst was in Portland Tuesday.

Gus Stark was in the city Saturday and Sunday visiting friends.

Judge Hayes, of Oregon City, delivered a very instructive lecture for the Ancient Order of United Workmen on Saturday evening. After the lecture there was a free dance and nearly all remained until the wee small hours tripping the light fantastic to the delightful music furnished by Eblan's orchestra.

The city ordinance, prohibiting bicyclists riding upon the sidewalks within the city limits, goes into effect May 1. This law should by all means be strictly enforced, as it is now, pedestrians are really in much greater danger of being run over by female scorchers while upon our main street, than they would be while crossing crowded Broadway in New York.

Eli Perkins has written that he will be here Tuesday evening, May 9, with out fail. He says that if all the trains break down that he will walk up from Portland, leaving his truth and veracity to follow by freight. The subject of his lecture will be, "The Philosophy of Wit and Humor and Stories Around the Stove." The lecture is in Pioneer hall Tuesday evening, May 9. Admission 25 cents. A very large crowd is expected, as this is the first time that any one of national fame has consented to come and lecture in so small a town as Aurora.

Services were conducted last Sunday evening by the Latter Day Saints, known otherwise as Mormons. They seem to be quite earnest and sincere, and no doubt they are endeavoring to do what good they can. We surely must admire their pluck in advocating a religion so unpopular as Mormonism, but the people have not yet forgotten the Mountain Meadow massacre and other similar deeds sustained by that church, and so do not give these young followers of Joseph Smith and Brigham Young much encouragement.

With pleasure we announce that R. L. Reed's injuries were not near as serious as was reported last week, in fact he has entirely recovered from the accident and is able to be out with the boys (girls) again.

H. H. Turner was in Aurora Saturday, the guest of Mrs. J. D. Hurst.

W. W. Irvin, of Barlow, was in the city Monday.

W. S. Hurst & Co. shipped two cars of hay and one car of spuds Monday.

H. L. Gerwig was in Portland Monday.

Caps Deck, Sr., and Fred Will made a business trip to Salem Thursday, returning Friday afternoon.

Mr. Froon, of Tiquique, Chili, arrived in the city on Monday morning's train on a visit to G. Mucke, April 24.

BULL RUN.

The school here is now flourishing with 21 enrolled scholars.

It was feared that the recent frost here had ruined the early fruit, cherries, etc., but the owners of several of the largest orchards in this vicinity report very little damage done.

The crops, that is, what the birds left of them, are looking fine.

Will Phelps and Thos. James are both "sporting" around on wheels, but they are both kicking about the taxes (tax).

P. J. Maupin, superintendent of the Bull Run water line, who has been dangerously ill, is able to attend to his duties again.

The Sandy Debating Club will hold its last meeting the 28th, inst. A big crowd and a good time is anticipated.

There will be a dance at Sandy at Casper Junkess' new hall this evening.

Ed Bruns, postmaster at Sandy, pronounces the "fishig" on the Bull Run side of Sandy, as the best in the country, the only fault he finds is that there is too much backbone to it.

Will Boshelm is a frequent visitor to Bull Run lately. Perhaps he is "fishig" also.

April 21. CHROME.

SANDY.

Sandy farmers are through with their farm work for awhile. Some farmers had to reseed spring grain, as the winter robins and English sparrows are becoming a pest and destroyed lots of spring grain. Several farmers have put out poison and killed millions.

A great many home seekers are in this garden spot of Oregon looking for homes. John Foster's large farm was sold to Mrs. Van Allen, of Michigan. She and her sons will soon move out.

A newcomer has moved on G. Arduser's place.

John Koffer is working at Cottrell.

Ed Paine is out from Portland on a visit.

Lizzie Beebe is visiting her folks.

Ed Strowbridge's smiling face is seen once more in Sandy.

H. Bruns is laid up with a sore limb.

J. H. Revenue, roadmaster, is busy with a crew of men blowing out and clearing the road of stumps.

R. Jonsrud is hauling lumber to build a large observatory on the Sandy View Summer Resort.

A dance was indulged in at the Sandy hotel, and was well attended. Everyone had a good time.

The Sandy Debating Club had a rousing meeting at the last time on discussing the question "Resolve That the Bicycle Tax is Unjust And Should be Repealed," and was decided in favor of the negative. Our debate will have its closing night April 29th. Everyone invited

April 24th.

NEW ERA.

We are having more rain.

Miss Carrie Burgoyne was home on a visit Sunday.

Ed Whittenberg, accompanied by a friend from Portland, was visiting his sister, Mrs. J. Burgoyne, of this place, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Bessie Wells, of Portland, was visiting her mother, Mrs. A. H. Wells at New Era.

Sam Crader, who has been in Eastern Oregon the past seven weeks, returned home Tuesday.

A great many of the young people of New Era have purchased wheels among the lucky number are: Misses Katie and Laura Newbury, Hattie Spulak and Miss Alice McArthur.

Jack Frost was out a few mornings ago, but don't think he did any damage to the fruit so far.

Mrs. G. T. McArthur, of Currinsville, arrived here last Saturday in company
