

Condensed Telegraphic News.

Dates to June 27th.

MADRID, June 18.—The Cortes passed a decree establishing a regency under Marshal Serrano. The vote on the final passage, stood 193 yeas to 45 nays.

OMAHA, June 16.—There is no further news of the Indians near the Platte. Several companies of cavalry are scouring the country in search of Indians. Six companies of troops, that arrived from California, have been distributed along the Pacific Railroad.

The Congressional Ways and Means Committee, with the Secretary and reporters, started west on a special train this afternoon, and will travel only in the day time. They will reach the Pacific in about ten days.

CHICAGO, June 17.—A notable event in connection with American turf matters, was an auction sale yesterday of blooded and trotting stock, owned by D. A. Gage, of the Sherman House, of this city. On his estate at Riverside, his breeding farm has become famous through the entire country, and the sale was well attended. A bay stallion, Logan, brought $9,000. Bonnie Scotland, $4,000. Some thirty horses were sold and the prices realized are said to be exceeding small. Logan and Bonnie Scotland were valued at $10,000 each. The sale will continue to-day.

The State Department has received dispatches from Mr. Motley, formally announcing his arrival in London and giving an account of his informal interview with Lord Clarendon. The Queen was still at Balmoral, and Mr. Motley therefore had not been presented to her.

NEW YORK, June 20.—The New York World's Havana letter says that General Jordan's expedition has been highly successful after landing as its most sanguine friends could reasonably expect.

Several members of the Cuban Junta were arrested by the U. S. Marshal and confined in the Ludlow jail.

There is intense excitement among Cuban sympathizers and Cubans at the arrest of the Cuban Junta, and denunciations of the conduct of the United States authorities are expressed.

The crop reports from Arkansas, North Mississippi and North Alabama, are favorable despite the unpropitious weather for weeks past.

LONDON, June 19.—In the house of Lords, after the close of the report of last night, and amid great excitement, the House at three o'clock passed the Irish Church Bill to its second reading, by 179 for to 145 against.

MADRID, June 19.—In the Cortes yesterday, Riquelme administered the oath of Regency to Marshal Serrano. The following is the new Cabinet as far as announced: Gen. Prim, Secretary of War. President of the Ministry, Silva. Secretary of State, Herrera, and Grace as Minister of Justice.

A private letter from one of our leading consular officials in England, says that Motley has been very kindly received by the best class of citizens in that country. Everybody is anxious to know what his instructions are.

CHARLESTON, June 20.—The first execution in South Carolina under the reconstructed State Government, took place on Friday afternoon at Arlington Court House, where a negro named Cyrus Cox was hanged for murder of Robert Suggs, white, in January last. The execution passed off quietly. The sheriff, and the minister who officiated, as well as most of the spectators and guard who were present, were all negroes. Cox confessed his guilt.

There was considerable excitement in Washington yesterday because the law allowing colored men to sit on juries took effect. Several negroes were summoned.

BREKST, June 21.—A banquet was given on board the steamship Great Eastern last evening in honor of Napoleon, Queen Victoria and President Grant, and toasts of France, England and America.

At an early hour this evening the shore line was spliced, and at daylight the whole expedition put to sea to pay out cable. Dispatches from on board the steamer show that the work is going on well.

LONDON, June 21.—The announcement of the death of Henry J. Raymond creates a deep feeling of sorrow. The Pall Mall Gazette eulogizes Raymond as a publisher and journalist. It says the death creates a gap which cannot be filled. The Daily Telegraph publishes a similar article.

The London Star says the U. S. Government is to be commended for consistency in taking measures to prevent the departure of filibustering parties for Cuba.

AMHERST, Mass., June 22.—A grand trial of mowers and reapers, under the auspices of the New England Agricultural Society, commenced to-day on the ground of the State College. Twenty-seven machines entered.

CHICAGO, June 23.—The severest storm ever known swept over the lower peninsula of Michigan on Tuesday of last week. Such tornadoes are of rare occurrence. Fences were prostrated, houses blown down, crops flattened and freshets were caused by heavy rains. One man was fatally injured and others are reported injured. The details are not yet received. In some places the storm swept everything before it. A church in Macomb county was struck by lightning and seriously damaged.

CHICAGO, June 23.—Washington specials say the Cabinet session lasted four hours. There was some talk on the Cuban question, in which it appeared that the President and the entire Cabinet sympathized with the revolutionists, but none believe this is a fit time to give the insurgents belligerent rights.

A large crowd of spectators was at the criminal court when Judge Fisher charged the grand jury, seven of whom were colored men. There was some anticipation of disagreeable scenes and refusal of white jurors to sit with the negroes, but nothing of the kind occurred.

It is stated that the ex-Minister Webb held an interview yesterday with Secretary Fish, on the Brazilian Government. He denounces the authorities there, and says they have no more respect for the United States than for Hayti. He thinks we ought to give them a good thrashing in consequence. It is understood that the President fully indorses the course pursued by Webb.

It is confidently believed that the consolidation between the Michigan Southern and Buffalo and Erie railroads will soon be made, which will place the whole line from Albany to Chicago under Vanderbilt's control.

Work will commence on the East river bridge immediately. Secretary Rawlins has approved the Commissioners' report.

GETTYSBURG, June 25.—General Meade accepted the invitation to perform the ceremony of unveiling the monument of the 1st of July, with appropriate remarks. The Baltimore Union Singing Association will be in attendance.

MEMPHIS, June 25.—A convention of citizens of West Alabama, Mississippi and Arkansas is called to meet here on the 13th of July to take measures for the introduction of Chinese emigrants.

BOSTON, June 23.—The vote on the annexation of Dorchester to Boston was carried at both places. It takes effect on the first day of next year.

COLUMBUS, Ohio June 22.—The Republican State Convention organized permanently. John Sherman was made president. The nominations are as follows: for Governor, B Hayes; Lieut. Governor, J. C. Lee; Treasurer, S. S. Warner; Supreme Judge, Luther Jay; Attorney General, F. B. Bond. Board of Public works, Richard A. Porter.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23.—The Republican State Convention was called to order. Gov. Geary was renominated on the first ballot. Judge Williams was renominated for Judge of the Supreme Court on the 1st ballot.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Borje has resigned the Secretaryship of the Navy, and Geo. M. Robertson, of New Jersey, formerly Attorney General of that State, has been appointed in his place.

BREKST, June 25.—The Great Eastern has now laid 406 miles of cable. All well.

THE CROPS.—The Agricultural Department report for May and June shows a high average condition of the wheat, and good prospects of abundant crops if no casualties occur before or after the harvest. Rye, barley and other grains are generally in fine condition and show an increase.

Peaches have made their appearance in market at various prices.

The crop reports from Arkansas are very encouraging. The amount of wheat harvested is largely in excess of that of any previous year.

CHICAGO, June 25.—Much uneasiness is felt regarding the corn crop, owing to protracted rains which still continue. The wheat and oats, however, are generally in fine condition.

"BLACK REPUBLICAN" CHERRY.—This is the name given to a seedling cherry, from the garden of Mr. Seth Luelling, of Milwaukie, shown to us the other day by Mr. D. D. Prettyman. The fruit is large, dark purple in color; flesh dark red, thick, firm, sweet and juicy. The tree bears extremely well. We judge it will be a first-rate market cherry.

STALL-FEEDING.—Our friend Mr. Daniel Clark, writes: "If Mr. G. W. Hunt would be so kind as to give, through the columns of the FARMER, a detailed account, as nearly as he can from memory, of Mr. Shotwell's experience in the different modes of stall-feeding tried by him, he would at least oblige one of your readers."

JUDGE ODELL, of Massachusetts, decided, in the case of Ward vs. Huntress, that calling a man a "d—d Englishman" is not swearing, within the meaning of the statutes, so long as the Alabama claims remain unsettled.

Cotswold Bucks.

I HAVE TWENTY-TWO COTSWOLD BUCKS for sale. JOHN C. BELL. Salem, Oregon, June 28, 1896.

PERKINS-PATENT

For Preserving Eggs. WARRANTED TO KEEP THEM Perfectly Fresh for One Year.

D. W. TRACY, owner of the patent right for Oregon. G. W. BUFORD, agent for Marion county. M. H. WALLACE, agent for Linn county. J. H. K. IRVIN, agent for Benton county. A. DEMING, agent for Polk county. W. A. MILLS, agent for Washington county. June 28, 1896.

Valuable

Homestead Property FOR SALE

Stephens' Addition TO EAST PORTLAND.

THE EAST PORTLAND HOMESTEAD COMPANY offer for sale Lots and Blocks in Stephens' Addition to East Portland, at reasonable terms.

The Lots and Blocks will be sold to accommodate purchasers on one, two and three years' credit, or payable in monthly installments. The object of the Company is to afford every facility to the actual settler to obtain a Homestead, according to his means. Loans will be made by the East Portland Savings and Loan Bank on the same terms, so as to assist the purchaser of a lot or block to build a house.

An opportunity is thus afforded to every head of a family to procure a Homestead. The land offered for sale will more than double in value as soon as the Oregon Central Railroad will be in running order to Oregon City.

The Odd Fellow, Masonic and Good Templar Lodges each own a lot, and will soon build halls on the same.

The present excellent school facilities will be increased by the early establishment of a graded school.

The Portland Bridge Company, of which L. M. Starr, Esq., is President, contemplate erecting a Bridge across the Willamette river, the terminus of which will be in the center of the new town site.

Mr. James B. Stephens will start for the East at an early day, to procure the necessary appliances to supply the place with an abundance of pure water, that is obtainable from the various streams back of and on the town site, with U. S. Patent.

For further particulars apply to or address HAMILTON BOYD, at Messrs. Ladd & Titton's, or to A. M. LORVEA, at the East Portland Bank, in East Portland, June 10th, 1896. Je21:1m:3dp

Capital Livery Stable, (In rear of Capital Hotel,) Salem.

HORSES AND CARRIAGES TO LET on reasonable terms. Special attention paid to transient and boarding horses. BOOTH & PLAMONDON, Proprietors. May 17-1y.

A. L. STINSON, BOOK and JOB PRINTER, And Blank Book Manufacturer, Griswold's Block, Salem.

EVERY VARIETY OF Plain and Ornamental Printing Executed with neatness and dispatch, and on reasonable terms.

Blacksmithing! S. H. WOODBURY, AT THE OLD stand near the Capital Lumbering Company's Mill, is ready to accommodate customers in his line of business. Farm implements repaired in the best manner and on short notice. Je7-1f.

C. D. ENYER, A. L. STINSON, G. D. SNYDER & CO., BOOKBINDERS AND Blank Book Manufacturers, SALEM, OREGON.

HAVING ESTABLISHED A First Class Bookbindery in Salem, are now prepared to do all manner of work known to the trade.

Magazines, Newspapers and Music, Bound in any desired style. Old Books re-bound.

BLANK BOOKS, of every description, with or without printed headings, manufactured to order.

BLANKS, of every kind, ruled and printed to order. PRICES REASONABLE. In Griswold's Brick Block. May 17-1f.

The Willamette Farmer.

Devoted to Agriculture and the other Industrial Interests of the North Pacific Coast.

RECOMMENDED

State Agricultural Society!

The necessity which has so long existed in Oregon for a journal where Farmers and other laboring men could meet and discuss their mutual interests, is obviated by the establishment of the WILLAMETTE FARMER.

The paper will advocate and labor for all interests that will advance the prosperity of the Farmer and Mechanic; and will have in view especially the encouragement of the cultivation and improvement of the soil, and the agricultural development of the State; fostering every branch of mechanical and household arts calculated to increase the happiness of home life; and extending and facilitating the various branches of Agriculture, Stock-Raising, and Mining and mining interests.

Special attention will be paid to the departments of Domestic and Eastern News.

And the subscribers to the FARMER will receive each week a careful and complete synopsis of all the news of the State and adjoining Territories, compiled from our exchanges and other sources, as well as a summary of Eastern telegraphic news,—thus furnishing our readers a complete

Agricultural Newspaper!

MARKET REPORTS!

Carefully corrected Commercial and Financial Reports will appear weekly, giving the New York, San Francisco, and Portland prices current, as well as those of a local character.

THE FARMER, THE MECHANIC, THE BUSINESS MAN, THE MERCHANT, Should Subscribe for It!

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. IN ADVANCE! One copy, one year..... $2 50 One copy, six months..... 1 50

POSTMASTERS are requested to act as our Agents. Money mailed in presence of a Postmaster, may be sent at our risk. Address,

A. L. STINSON, Publisher and Proprietor, Salem, Oregon.

What our Exchanges Say. "It is just the paper every farmer in Oregon needs. No man is better acquainted with every department of Oregon agriculture than Mr. Jno. Minto. We wish the enterprise all possible success."—Pacific Christian Advocate. "Oregon needs an agricultural paper, and we know not why this one will not supply the want."—Courier. "The Agricultural and Geographical Statistics of Oregon," by A. J. DuFar, Esq., which will appear in each number, by counties, will be found well worth the subscription price of the paper to every citizen of the State."—Democratic Press. "Their perusal [agricultural and geographical statistics] is well worth the subscription price of the paper for one year."—Pacific Ch. Advocate. "Is filled with matter interesting to all persons as well as farmers. We hope the FARMER will prove, as it deserves, a success."—Commercial. "Every farmer should assist in sustaining this paper, as it is directly published for his benefit."—Mountaineer. "Being edited by John Minto, guarantees its reliability as an agricultural paper."—Bogus City Guard. "We judge from the first number that the farmer and mechanic will want it not only for the information it will contain pertaining especially to their vocations, but for its current, general and local news."—Oregonian. "Is filled with matter interesting to all classes of the Oregon public, and especially to the agricultural."—Pala County Signal. "The people should support it."—State Journal. "Filled with valuable and interesting matter for the farmer and mechanic, besides the current news of the day."—Olympia (W. T.) Transcript. "Contains excellent reading for farmers."—Grand Ronde Sentinel. "Every farmer should subscribe for it."—Van couver (W. T.) Register. "The number before us is the best specimen of an agricultural journal that we have seen this side of the Rocky Mountains."—San Francisco Times.