

SATURDAY MORNING, OCT. 22, 1870.

THOMAS BOYCE, No. 30 (Second floor,) Merchant's Exchange, California Street, below Montgomery, is our duly authorized agent for San Francisco.

HUDSON & MENET, are our duly authorized Agents in the Atlantic States. Office, 41 Park Row, "Times" Building, New York.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

FILLING UP.—We mention it as a fact, not to be proud of by any means, that many of the old shanties in town are filling up with Chinese—detestable wretches of both sexes with their filth and depravity—near the business centre of the corporation. We think the city fathers should be able to keep these hawdy-houses back as far as the outskirts of town any way.

THE FAIR.—Next week bid fair to be a very important one for Jackson county. A good many persons will be here from abroad to notice the exhibition of stock and witness the races. We hope our own citizens will be generally on hand.

A MILD FALL.—It is getting to be pretty well conceded that about all anyone can tell of Oregon weather is what he actually perceives or experiences. It is the most fatal climate on weather prophets we know of.

THEATRICAL.—The Wilton Dramatic Troupe, than which no better one ever travels through these regions, is announced to be here and perform every night during the Fair.

IMPROVEMENTS.—The proprietors of the Union-Livery Stables are having a new foundation put under the main building, together with new sills, etc., which is necessarily a difficult undertaking, but the workmen having the job in hand know how it is done.

GREAT REDUCTION OF PRICES.—Mr. John Miller will hereafter sell at the following reduced prices: Saddles, from $10 to $50; Saddle Trees, $4 to $6; Team and Farm Harness, from $25 to $50; Collars, from $2 50 to $4 50; Riding Bridles, from $1 50 to $10; Halters, from $1 25 to $2 25; Black Snake Whips, from $1 to $2 25; Buggy Whips, from $1 to $2 25; Bridle Bits, from 25 cts. to $3 50; and all other articles will be sold at proportionate low prices.

GEO. HAWKINS AGAIN.—We made mention of this individual being bound over last week, by justice Gaul, to await the sitting of the Grand Jury, but his peculiar ambition does not seem to have been satisfied with one arraignment. He had the dose repeated this week for drawing a gun on John Sizemore.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. W. Jackson, who has been for the last two weeks located at Ashland, will remain in this place until after the Horse Fair. All those needing the services of a first-class dentist should avail themselves of this opportunity, as the Doctor intends visiting Kerbyville and adjacent villages immediately after the close of the Fair.

HOFFMAN & KRIPPEL.—The new advertisement of this enterprising firm will be found in to day's paper. They have all that is out down in the ad., and considerable more besides. All those wishing to buy should call and examine their large assortment before purchasing elsewhere.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15, 1870.

Messrs. Cowan & Flint, Gents:—For the benefit of those suffering with the terrible disease Fever and Ague, allow me to state that I was afflicted with the Chills and Fever which afterward turned into the Dumb Ague. I had tried all the most celebrated physicians of this city for four months, but grew worse until I was scarcely able to walk, with loss of appetite, night sweats, etc.

A GOOD TREAT.—Mr. Thomas Devens, who has just returned from Crescent City, furnished us with a mess of sweet potatoes. They are not bad to take in a country where they are so seldom found, and Thomas is entitled to many thanks for his kind remembrance of the printer.
