

Here's Good Advice.

O. S. Woolever, one of the best known merchants of Le Raysville, N. Y., says: "If you are ever troubled with piles, apply Bucklen's Arnica salve. It cured me of them for good 20 years ago."

A Trick With Glass.

Did you ever try to cut a pane of glass in a straight line with a pair of shears? Perhaps you think it can't be done, but it can.

From Animal Land.

The big Hippopotamus and cousin Rhinoceros were each very proud of his name. Their visiting cards measured over two yards.

The Rat and the Mouse both bought a big house and invited the Tiger to dinner. He ate all the pie and bade them goodbye.

Said the Turtle, "I'll try tomorrow to fly." So he tied on some wings with a cord. Then he jumped from a fence and knocked out his sense.

High and Low Ground Apples. Professor W. J. Green says: Apples will thrive on a great variety of soils, will color better on high land, but will hang to the trees better and ripen later on low ground.

All Around Values In Ashes. Ashes are commonly valued by farmers for the potash which they are supposed to contain. According to recent experiments in Europe, it appears that the phosphoric acid in the ashes is also more valuable than its quantity would indicate.

Feeding Hogs. If you do not keep your feeding troughs clean, if you have a filthy swill barrel, if you permit the feed to become sour every now and then, don't be surprised if the pigs scour.

Land Values. One can buy as much plant food for $100 in New Hampshire as in the richest states of the west; perhaps more. Notwithstanding this land runs from $75 to $100 an acre in the west and from $10 to $50 in the east.

Scrubs Unprofitable. A scrub lamb was raised in company with a high grade Southdown lamb at the Louisiana experiment station, with the result that on the same feed and care and in the same time the scrub lamb gained thirty-two pounds and the Southdown forty-three.

Pack Fruit to Look Well. Says Professor Hitt of Maryland: The appearance of fruit often sells it. A package where the fruits are all of a size looks better than one where they are of different sizes and on that account sells better.

To stop that pain in the back that the stiffness of the joints and muscles, take Pineules. They are guaranteed. Don't suffer from rheumatism, headache, kidney trouble, when you get 30 days' treatment for $1.
