PAY TAXES TO THE COUNTY TREASURER

The Sheriff no Longer Takes the Money

---Taxes Become Delinquent

April 1 Hereafter

3—A penalty of three per cent on all taxes paid on or after the 1st day of June and before the 1st day of July following.

4—A penalty of four per cent on all taxes paid on or after the said 1st day of July and before the 1st day of August following.

5—A penalty of five per cent on all taxes paid on or after the said 1st day of August and before the 1st day of September following.

Provided, that one-half of the taxes against any particular parcel of real property, or the taxes on personal property charged with any individual, firm, etc, may be paid before the said 1st day of April, in which event the penalties specified in this section shall apply only to and be collected with the remaining one half of such taxes, to be paid prior to the said 1st day of September following. All taxes remaining unpaid on the 1st day of September shall become delinquent. Upon all taxes so delinquent there shall be charged and collected a penalty of 10 per cent and interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum on such taxes from the day on which they became delinquent until their payment.

All household furniture, domestic fixtures, household goods and effects actually in use as such in homes and dwellings; also all wearing apparel, watches, jewelry and similar personal effects, actually in use, are exempt from taxation.—Herald

Triumph of a Sausage.

Westphalia, in Prussia, is the home of the sausage. There, it is said, a trader will name no fewer than 400 different kinds of sausage. A sausage exhibition was held recently in Germany, at which 1,000 varieties of sausage were shown.

In this connection the story is told of a young Prussian who, though he had received an expensive training as a chemist, shut himself up in his laboratory and instead of devising a new dye, safety match, motor engine, explosive, aeroplane or photographic lens took pork, veal, olives, pepper, fennel, old wine, cheese, apples, cinnamon and herrings' roes and from them evolved a wonderful and totally original "wurst," the best of its kind. He has amassed a considerable fortune from its sale.—Berlin Cor. New York Sun.

The Professor's Compliment.

"The professor paid me a compliment that I don't know whether to like or not."

"How is that, my girl?"

"He says I am so interesting that he is going to name a germ after me."—Pittsburgh Post.
